News & Thoughts

Have you ever wanted to write or illustrate a children’s book? On the afternoon of Tuesday the 14th, from 2 to 4 PM, please come and join a group of people who are learning how to successfully create a children’s book. Additional members welcome!

Do You Wanna Build A Snowman?

Using socks and rice and other materials, we'll be making snowmen! (It doesn't have to be a snowman...) Kids of all ages are welcome to join us for Kids’ Crafts on Thursday the 16th at 3:30 PM!

Want to get a discount on your car insurance? Need to remove points from your driver’s license? Or just get a refresher on the changes in driving laws that have been passed since you first started driving? Take a 6-hour Defensive Driving Class at the library, starting at noon on the 20th. Class size is limited; please sign up ahead of time by contacting Linda Karpovich at 607-643-8360 (call or text), or at betternydriver@gmail.com. The regular cost is $40, but library patrons can take the class for $35.

This new year, why not Release Perfectionism and Embrace Progress? Come enjoy a guided meditation and talk about how to enjoy and celebrate your productive and creative progress. Join Myra Foland, Reiki Master & fellow “progress-not-perfectionist,” on Tuesday the 21st from 1 to 2:30 PM.

Did you recently get a new electronic device? Would you like some help in learning how to use it better? Sign up for some one-on-one help in the library, or join our weekly computer and internet 101 group (meeting 4-5 on Wednesdays).

The 4CLS website has a new look! The new design is based on feedback from patrons and member libraries, with larger text and easier access to information about our member libraries. Check it out!

Thanks to everyone who supported our recent fundraiser – your generosity is an important part of what keeps this library going!
