Our annual Seed Swap starts this month – come in, explore the variety of free seeds we have (peas, corn, squash, beans, lettuce, peppers, tomatoes, watermelons, and lots more!). Take home something new to try this year (who knows, maybe you’ll find a new favorite)!

Reminder – our “Blind Date with a Book” and “Secret Valentine Book” event is ending soon. Please get your responses in by March 12, because that’s when we’ll have our drawing for the sweet treats that YOU might win!

SECRET TIP: If you check out all the books in the library, you can start your own library.

The last passenger train ran through Stamford on March 31, 1954. What was life like with a passenger train coming into the village regularly? How did life change when it no longer came through? Join us for a Share & Chat at 1 PM on Wednesday the 18th with our historian Karen Cuccinello.

Do you need some tax forms to get your taxes done? Come into the library, and we’ll help you find them online and print them out (only 15 cents a page).

Coming up next month: Our library is doing a bit of our own March Madness with a fund-raising Raffle! We have two gift baskets you could win: one with a garden theme, and one with a wine theme. Tickets will be available throughout the month of March, and the drawing will be held in early April.

You probably knew that we have copies of many of our local school yearbooks, but did you know that all our Stamford Central School yearbooks are available on DVD? Come in and take a look!
